

Interaction with Students of Samara State University

Her Excellency Dr. Oheneba Lesley Opoku-Ware, Head of Mission, interacted with a delegation of officials and students from the Samara State University of Economics at the Chancery on Wednesday, 12th February, 2020.

The encounter which was pursuant to the public diplomacy mandate of the Mission afforded the opportunity for the Head of Mission to dilate on the contribution by Ghana towards global peace and security, integration efforts at the sub-region level through ECOWAS and the African Union (AU), as well as the reinvigoration of the relations between Ghana and the Russian Federation and Countries of concurrent Accreditation. The students were accompanied by Professor Anicet Gabriel Kotchofa, former Ambassador of the Republic of Benin to the Russian Federation and Madam Elena Viktorovna Shirnina, Vice-rector of the University.
